Angelyn R. "Angie" Scheffler, age 84 of Kenosha, died at Harmony Assisted Living in Kenosha on Thursday, July 25, 2014.

Born on February 5, 1930 in Marathon City, WI; she was the daughter of the late Ervin and Marguerite (Resop) Hornung.

Angie attended schools in Marathon City and after moving to Kenosha in 1959, earned a teaching degree from Gateway Technical School.

On September 20, 1958 at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Marathon, WI, she was united in marriage to Lavern Scheffler. He preceded her in death on August 4, 2009.

Angie was a teacher's aide assisting students who had learning disabilities at Zion-Benton High School. A member of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Angie was strong in her faith. She was a former member of St. Anthony's Catholic Church where she had been active in various Christian Women's groups.

An avid flower gardener, planting flowers brought her much joy. She enjoyed baking and cooking in abundance so there were always leftovers. Mostly she adored her family.

So sorry to hear of Angie's passing. We were neighbors and friends at Echo Lane. Our memories are of Angie outside, working on her garden and always a smile on her face. She will be missed by all.
