Born on February 22, 1927 in Milwaukee, she was the daughter of the late Ewald and Mary (Sitz) Zettler. Audrey attended Racine Schools and was a graduate of Horlick High School.

On February 15, 1947 at Holy Community Lutheran Church, Racine, she was united in marriage to Donald P. "Scotty" Scott. After their marriage they made Kenosha their home. Sadly, he preceded her in death in 2002.

Audrey was employed with Kenosha County for many years. She began her career with the District Attorney's Office, the Family Court System, and retired from the Department of Aging. Previously, she was employed at American State Bank as a teller.

She was a member of Lord of Life Lutheran Church and a former member of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church where she served as an usher, greeter and was a former Sunday School Teacher. Audrey was a Girl Scout leader and member of the McKinley Jr. High School P.T.A., volunteered at Kenosha Hospital and Medical Center, and served on the board of the Kenosha Public Library during the administration of Mayor Paul Saftig, and was a member of the Kenosha Legal Secretaries Association. Audrey, along with her sister, co-founded the Racine Area Geriatric Assessment Center.

Audrey enjoyed needlepoint, traveling and reading. After making Brookside her home, Audrey couldn't get enough of Bingo and immensely loved her casino trips.

One of my fondest memories was when she invited is over for dinner and made this most delicious 'cornbread pudding'. While I do miss that wonderful delight, she will be missed more.
