Obituary:

Betty B. Hodal, age 90 of Kenosha, died unexpectedly on Wednesday, October 1, 2014 at her residence. Born in Kenosha on December 29, 1923 she was the last surviving child born to the late James and Frances (Schultz) Haber.

Betty attended local schools, Normal School in Union Grove, and in 1962, she received her Bachelor's Degree from Dominican College.

On June 25, 1949 at St. Anthony Catholic Church, she was united in marriage to Edward Hodal. He preceded her in death on September 2, 1970.

For 20 years, Betty was employed as a teacher at Jefferson Elementary and Curtis Strange Elementary, retiring in 1987.

Betty was a very faithful member of St. Anthony Catholic Church and was a Charter Member of their Rosary Society. She was also a member of the Woman's Club, Catholic Woman's Club, Trinity Seniors, the Senior Chorus, KCREA, Friends of Hawthorn Hollow and she was a docent at the Kenosha History Center. Survivors include her two sons, Gary (Sandy) and Larry (Peggy) Hodal; her daughter, Annette (Mike) Hamburg; and her grandchildren, Megan (Rich) Fedor, Kristin Hamburg, and Aaron (Tabitha) Hamburg; and her great granddaughter, Natalia Fedor. She is further survived by her life-long friend, Ann Koprowicz.

Gary, Larry, and Annette - Christine and I were saddened to learn of your mother's death. Your mom was a truly gifted, gentle, and caring person. It is very difficult to lose a loved one, but your memories of family, your mother's care for you, and the many happy times you shared with her will always remain close to your hearts. We will pray for your mom and for each of you. God Bless You, Ed and Christine Munz
