He was born on March 2, 1954 in White Pine, MI, the son of the late John H. and Gloria (Bergland) Forchette Sr.

John was a 1972 graduate of St. Joseph High School and attended University of Wisconsin, Stevens Point. He proudly served our country in the US Air Force.

John was very athletic and had a big build which made him a natural for playing football in high school and then in the semi-pro's for the Delevan Red Devils and the Racine Raiders. John not only loved playing football, but was a huge fan of the Green Bay Packers. He also enjoyed fishing in the town of his birth on Lake Gogebic.

For many years, John was a plant manager for Advance Display Company in Chicago.
