Obituary:

June L. George, age 95 of Kenosha, died on Wednesday, September 10, 2014 at her residence.

A lifelong resident of Kenosha, she was born on January 6, 1919, and was the daughter of the late Gustdavies and Gertrude (Makouskie) Johnson.

In 1938, she was united in marriage to Herbert George. He preceded her in death on January 10, 1997.

June was an industrious homemaker who loved caring for her family. She enjoyed taking care of her beautiful flower garden, bowling, bingo, playing cards; especially pinochle, and traveling to Las Vegas.

She is survived by her granddaughter, Debbie (Bruce) Hendricks of Fredricksburg, VA; her sister, Patricia Ramacci of Kenosha; her caregiver, Stella Uniejewska; and her many loving nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by a daughter, Arlene Holmes; a son, Dennis George; a brother, George Johnson; and a sister, Gertrude McClain.

June - you were such a good friend. A neighbor for many years when I was still home. Since then, I enjoyed playing bingo with you. You will always be remembered and I love you. Love - Mim

June and I played and enjoyed bingo for many years. We played bingo mostly at Potawatomi in Milwaukee about once a week. We enjoyed each other's company very much. I'm going to miss her very much.
