Obituary:

Norbert LeMay, 76, passed away on Sunday, June 22, 2014 at Aspirus Hospital in Wausau, Wisconsin, surrounded by loved ones. He was born on July 9th, 1937 in Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin to Leonard and Eunice (Witt) LeMay.

Norbert "Norb" grew up in Superior, WI and Kenosha, WI, attending Friedens Lutheran School & Mary D. Bradford High School. Norbert left school in 1956 to start an automotive repair shop with his father. He worked at TriClover in the mornings and the repair shop in the evenings while the business was being established. The repair shop later became Leonard LeMay and Son's GMC. They also sold and serviced Holiday Rambler trailers and Lund boats and in 1982 received the Pontiac franchise. In 1989 Norbert sold his shares of Leonard LeMay and Son's to his brothers and worked at Fred Jones Pontiac/GMC in Brookfield Wisconsin from 1989 until 1991. In 1991 he went to work for Roger Palmen Chevrolet as the General Manager where he stayed until his retirement in 2003.

Norbert married Elaine Ziesemer on May 9, 1959 at Trinity Lutheran Church in Kenosha. They were two happily married best friends for 55 years. Norbert attended Trinity Lutheran church in Kenosha, Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Crandon, and Zion Lutheran Church in Alamo, Texas. Norbert enjoyed golfing, fishing, and cooking for family and friends at "Norb's Diner". Norbert loved serving
