Obituary:

Rita C. Valeri, age 80 of Kenosha, died on Friday, July 11, 2014 at United Hospital System - St. Catherine's Medical Center Campus, surrounded by her loving family.

Born on August 9, 1933 in Racine, she was the daughter of the late Charles and Helen (Moriarty) Nixa.

On August 22, 1953 at St. Mary Catholic Church, Racine, she was united in marriage to Luigi Valeri.

For several years, Rita was employed in the family auto body shop business.

She was a member of Our Lady of the Holy Rosary Catholic Church.

Rita was an avid reader, great listener, and always enjoyed all the "simple" things in life.

She is survived by her husband of nearly 61 years, Luigi Valeri; her three children, Margaret Valeri, Louis (Carmela) Valeri and Angela Valeri; her three grandchildren, Christina, Andrew (Yilian) and Michael Valeri; her brother, Joseph Nixa; her two sisters, Katherine and Paula; her two sisters-in-law, Anna Carlini and Jane Nixa; her special friend and caregiver, Anne Thraser; and many loving nieces and nephews.

Rita's family would like to extend a special thank you to the ICU staff of St. Catherine's Medical Center for the loving care they provided.

Condolences

Rita was one of the earliest members of NAMI (National Alliance of Mental Illness). I think that the first meeting was held in her home. She was an active member, and probably was treasurer at the beginning. Rita was a very caring person, as she helped raise her granddaughter. I am glad to have known her.
