I worked with Bob at the Naval Base, Great Lakes for 5 years. He always told you like it was and was always there to help. He was a good friend. I also knew him thru the American Legion and belonging to NARFE. He was the smiling face in the crowd. I will miss him. My deepest sympathy goes out to Connie and the family.

Connie our sympathies at Bobs passing. Our fun times go back over 40 years and frequently come to mind. My life was enriched to have Bob pass through a large part of it. He's probably started making stir sticks again. His memory will be cherished forever. God Bless. Paul Chevalier
